Volunteer Opportunities

If you choose "Volunteer Activity" as one of your three required activities, please note that any music-related volunteer activity will help you meet the requirements of the President's Club, including helping at your school, house of worship, or community center. There are also several fun opportunities to volunteer at Levine, including the following:

1. Visiting Instrument Day

Would you like to introduce your instrument to young children and inspire the next generation of musicians? Our First Music early childhood & elementary music program needs student volunteers to visit classes filled with young children and talk about their instruments. This is a great way to mentor and inspire younger students!

All instruments are welcome, though cellists, guitarists, and woodwind and brass players are especially encouraged to participate. Volunteers are needed at all Levine campuses throughout the Spring semester. Student volunteers for Visiting Instrument Day must have at least three years of experience playing their instrument. For more information, please contact Elizabeth Johnson, in our First Music Department, at ejohnson@levinemusic.org.

2. Music Theatre at Levine / Levine Presents

Music Theatre at Levine, the DC area's top musical theater program, presents middle and high school students in fully-staged musical productions throughout the year. Also, Levine's signature performance series, Levine Presents, showcases faculty and guest artists in concerts, lectures, and workshops throughout the Washington, DC area. Volunteers are needed for these events to help distribute programs, direct guests to their seats, and more.

Student volunteers for our Music Theatre and Levine Presents programs must be at least 13 years old. For more information, please contact Carolyn Agan, at cagan@levinemusic.org.

President's Club Events

Events designed just for President's Club participants!

Joining a community of other dedicated students like yourself can lead to new friendships and extra motivation. We have designed two events during the 2021-2022 school year especially for President's Club participants, where you can meet each other and participate in fun activities. The events are not required* but we encourage you to attend.

So, mark your calendar! If you would like to attend either of these events, please sign up via the Events Calendar on our website: <https://www.levinmusic.org/performance/events-calendar/>

Voices of Change/The World of Zarzuela from Spain to Latin America

7pm at DC Campus: NW

Join Gustavo Ahualli and Carlos Rodriguez as they explain Spain's musical tradition of Zarzuela, which blends classical operatic composition with folk dance, song, and instruments. Its dissemination into Latin America as a colonizing force led to the development of new musical-cultural identities. With this presentation, we will explore this metamorphosis and reflect on the richness and diversity of this genre underlining the importance of this musical heritage.

The Duke and the Busboy Poet: Duke Ellington, Langston Hughes and the D.C.-Harlem Renaissance

7pm at DC Campus: NW

Poet Langston Hughes and Composer/Bandleader Duke Ellington interpreted the American experience through sounds and words. Join Charles Williams (Voice) and Gary Prince (Guitar) as they explore the music, poetry, and lives of these two great artists, including their roots in Washington, D.C., their role in the Harlem Renaissance, and their continued relevance in today's troubled world.

These events are required for Rising Stars students who are participating in President's Club.
